Week 7 in a 9-week Series

Scripture: Luke 10:38-42
Series: "40 Years of FaithFullness" – Week 7 of 9

SECTION 1 – GROWTH GROUP QUESTIONS

1. When you have a lot to do, what tends to distract you or make you feel overwhelmed?

2. What gets in your way to slow down and spend time with God?

3. What do you think Jesus meant when He said that Mary had chosen what was better?

4. What is the difference between serving Jesus and becoming distracted by serving?

5. Why do you think Jesus repeated the words "worried" and "upset" when speaking to Martha? What gets you worried and upset these days?

6. If someone were to observe you "sitting at the feet of Jesus" what would you be doing in that moment?

7. How can good things, even ministry and serving others, distract us from our relationship with Jesus?

8. Have you ever been so busy doing things for God that you neglected spending time with God? What happened?

9. Do you ever measure your worth by how much you accomplish or how much you do for others?

SECTION 2 – PRAYER

Spend time praying for each other. What does choosing "what is better" look like in your everyday life? What might Jesus be inviting you to lay down so you can pay closer attention to Him? Share one way that you might pursue a new practice of being with Jesus this next week. Pray for each other – not just in this time – but throughout the week.
