

Laura Robinson Harbert's Bio

Laura is a clinical psychologist, a spiritual director, and an ordained Presbyterian minister. She is the former Dean of the Chapel and Spiritual Formation at Fuller Theological Seminary. She teaches in different settings in the area of the integration of psychology and spirituality. She also has a private practice in Pasadena and is volunteering one day a week at Homeboy Industries, providing therapy for formerly incarcerated men and women and former gang members.

Her B.A. is from Wheaton College (1981) and M.Div. (1986) from Fuller Theological Seminary and Ph.D.(1988) from Fuller's Graduate School of Psychology.

Her doctoral dissertation was on the role of forgiveness in emotional healing.

Laura's passion is integrating her experience as a clinical psychologist with spiritual growth and discipleship. She has also enjoyed the opportunity to preach, teach, and lead retreats on subjects that integrate psychology and faith.

Laura and her husband Mike have five children between the ages of 27 and 34, and one beloved grandson! She loves reading, exploring on her tandem bike with her husband, cooking, hiking, and trying to become a gardener.
